

I am in favor of cellular phone numbers being portable - it seems unreasonable for ownership not to be vested in the person who pays for the service as is the case with home or office telephone numbers.